Information Update on COVID-19

It's been a while since we've sent out a COVID-19 update or new FAQs. We were anticipating larger numbers of our staff returning to on campus work in the fall, but the numbers have remained low and some staff have actually been returned to at home work because the in person traffic in their offices was low. However, we do have questions from members who are working on-site or may be in the future.

This FAQ addresses some of those questions and concerns. We also have a new checklist of information of questions you should ask and information you should have in the case that you are being asked to work on-site. USW is continuing to work with CUPE and UTFa to advocate for health and safety measures for all our members. Particularly, we are not satisfied with the processes regarding follow up with positive-COVID cases on campus and are
